

By the Queene.

HE Queenes Maiestie geueth all maner her Subjectes to vnderstande, that where of late it hath ben agreed at Brugis in Flaunders, in a treatie for matters of Entercourse of Marchaundize, by Commissioners on the part of her Maiestie, and of the kyng of Spayne, her good brother, that the sayde treatie, for diuers necessary considerations, shoulde be suspended and prorogued from the .xxiiij. of September last, vntyll the .xv. of March next folowyng, and then to be renewed agayne: whereby it is also ordered, that both her Maiestie, and the sayde kyng, her good brother, shoulde cause the same suspension and prorogation, to be publyshed at London, and at Andwarpe, the .xx. of this moneth of October. For that consideration, her Maiestie doth presently notifie, declare, and publyshe, to all her Subjectes, and to the Subjectes belongyng to the sayde kyng, that they, and euery of them, may vse and continue the maner of theyr entercourse and traffike of Marchaundize, betwixt her Maiesties dominions, and the Countryes of the sayde Kyng of Spayne, in lyke sort and maner as heretofore they haue done, vntyll such tyme as further order shalbe taken by both theyr Maiesties.

Neuen at her Maiesties Pallacie of Westminster, the .xvi. day of October. 1565. In the seuenth yere of her Maiesties raigne.

God sauе the Queene.

C Imprinted at London in Powles
Churchyarde, by Rycharde Jugge and John Cawood:
Printers to the Queenes Maiestie.

Cum priuilegio Regie Maiestatis.